

JOB POSTING

Position Title: Regional Organizer (Atlantic)
Department: Election Readiness
Position FTE: Contract part-time – to October 2019
Location: New Brunswick

Reporting Structure: Reports to: Lead Regional Organizer

Summary

The Regional Organizer represents CPC HQ in the regions. They are responsible for ensuring a timely and accurate flow of information to/from HQ to their assigned region. They are a facilitator and bridge to ensure the best stakeholder relations and the best levels of service are being provided from the central Party to the local EDAs.

The Regional Organizer has two central roles. The first role is their responsibility working in the field laying the groundwork to win the next election and connecting Electoral District Associations and National Headquarters. This includes identifying and recruiting candidates, assisting with running nomination meetings, and general regional election preparations. The second role is their responsibility for day to day party business which includes traveling within the region, meeting people, attending EDA meetings, supporting EDAs, and ensuring EDA legal compliance (financial, Elections Canada, etc.).

The Regional Organizer is the regional “eyes and ears” of the central party. They are the helpful hand and coach who ensures that regional/EDA needs are brought to the national table in a timely manner and that assistance is obtained when needed in a seamless manner. They are a first point of contact with the EDA/local campaign. They use their people, planning, problem solving and communication skills to ensure strong effective supporting relations between HQ and the regions/EDAs/local campaigns.

The ideal candidate has a wealth of political/campaign experience, knowledge and contacts in the specific region, and has the integrity, diplomacy, and people skills to communicate and solve issues early before they become an obstacle to success.
