2) GENERAL

- a) These Rules for candidate nominations have been adopted by the National Council for use by the EDAs of the Party pursuant to Article 8.7.2 of the Constitution.
- b) National Council hereby recognizes the NCSC to act pursuant to Article 14.1 of the Constitution and to provide general supervision over the nomination process.
- c) Pursuant to Article 14.1 of the Constitution of the Party, the NCSC has the absolute discretion to disallow an Applicant, Nomination Contestant, or Candidate.

3) APPLICATION PROCESS

Electoral District held by a Conservative MP elected by means of a By-Election

- a) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, where an MP is elected by means of a by-election, the MP will be automatically acclaimed as the Candidate for the upcoming General Election and the EDA shall not be required to form a CNC.

Electoral District held by a Conservative MP

- b) In an Electoral District held by a MP,
 - i. Any Applicant, other than the MP, who wishes to run for a nomination shall submit their Application not later than 5:00pm EST on December 15, 2017.
 - ii. For the purpose of this Section 3(b), Applications shall be required to include a nomination petition signed by at least fifty (50) current Party members who are in good standing and reside in the Electoral District in which the Applicant wishes to run as of November 1, 2017.
 - iii. In the event that no Applications are received, the EDA shall not be required to form a CNC and the MP shall be acclaimed as the Candidate.
 - iv. In the event that an Application is received, the EDA shall constitute a CNC, and shall interview such Applicant(s) no later than January 18, 2018. If a majority of the CNC believes that there may be cause to disallow an Applicant, the Executive Director or their designate shall immediately inform the NCSC. The NCSC shall endeavour to render a decision with respect to an Applicant not later than seven (7) days after receiving word from the CNC that there may be cause to disallow said Applicant.

Candidate Nomination Rules and Procedures as adopted by National Council on December 27, 2017

- v. The Executive Director or their designate, in consultation with the Chair of NCSC and the National Councillor(s) for the affected jurisdiction may open the nomination at any time they see fit by causing the Opening Notice to be sent.
- vi. In the event that a Nomination is required in a member-held Electoral District, the MP shall be required to provide their Application within fourteen (14) days of the Opening Notice and the normal timelines for interviews would apply. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, an MP is only required to submit a nomination petition signed by at least twenty-five (25) current Party members who are in good standing and reside in the Electoral District in which the MP wishes to run.

All Other Electoral Districts

- c) In an Electoral District not subject to Section 3(a) and Section 3(b),
 - i. The Close of Nominations shall be at 5:00pm EST fourteen (14) days after the Opening Notice is given.
 - ii. Applications may be submitted prior to the Opening Notice and will be reviewed upon receipt by the Executive Director or their designate. To allow time for review and to provide time to address any deficiencies, Applications should be submitted as soon as possible.
 - iii. Applicants who submit their Applications prior to the Opening Notice are not immediately required to declare which Electoral District they are running in or to submit their nomination petition of twenty-five (25) signatures (as set out in Section 7). These eligibility requirements must only be met after the Opening Notice, at which time, Applicants must submit to the Executive Director: (i) a letter of intent to run in the riding, and (ii) a nomination petition signed by at least twenty-five (25) current Party members who are in good standing and reside in the Electoral District in which the Applicant wishes to run.
 - iv. Applications received after the Close of Nominations and Applications that are not complete will not be accepted and the Applicant will not be permitted to become a Nomination Contestant.
 - v. When an Application is received after the Opening Notice is given but before the Close of Nominations, the Applicant shall be interviewed by the CNC within seven (7) days after the receipt of the Application. The NCSC may require that a representative of the NCSC participate in the interview, in which case the CNC will assist the NCSC in making any necessary arrangements to enable such participation. If a majority of the CNC believes that there may be cause to disallow an Applicant, the Executive Director or their designate shall immediately inform the NCSC or its designated representative and the Applicant will automatically be referred to NCSC for review.
 - vi. The NCSC may require that the CNC provide further information or documentation. The NCSC may contact the Applicant directly to obtain any additional information or documentation it may reasonably require.

- vii. If an Application is received by the Executive Director prior to the Opening Notice where the Applicant declares the EDA in which they will run but prior the appointment of the CNC in that EDA, the EDA will have seven (7) days after the receipt of the Application to constitute the CNC. If the CNC has not been constituted within seven (7) days of receipt of the Application, the NCSC shall review the Application and conduct the Applicant interview process.
- viii. The NCSC shall review the Application and conduct the Applicant interview process if an Applicant elects not to declare which Electoral District they will run in or if an Applicant requests that their Application be reviewed in confidence for professional or personal reasons that the NCSC deems reasonable.

4) ELECTORAL DISTRICT CANDIDATE NOMINATION COMMITTEE

- a) Pursuant to Section 11 of the EDA constitution, the EDA Board shall appoint a CNC subsequent to each election where the EDA is not held by an MP.
- b) The CNC shall be comprised of:
 - i. the financial agent of the EDA, if willing and able to participate in the CNC;
 - ii. two (2) EDA Board members;
 - iii. two (2) members at-large of the Electoral District; and
 - iv. the Executive Director or their designate who will be a staff member of the Party and whose membership on the CNC may be reassigned by the Executive Director at any time without prior notice.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the President of the EDA Board shall not be a member of the CNC.

- c) The EDA Board shall appoint two (2) EDA Board members as alternates for the CNC and specify which appointee shall be the first alternate and which shall be the second alternate. These alternates will not participate in any CNC functions.
 - i. In the event that an EDA Board member who is a member of the CNC becomes unable or unwilling to participate in the CNC, the first alternate shall become a member of the CNC.
 - ii. In the event that a second EDA Board member who is a member of the CNC becomes unable or unwilling to participate in the CNC, the second alternate shall become a member of the CNC.
 - iii. In the event that a subsequent EDA Board member who is a member of the CNC becomes unable or unwilling to participate in the CNC, the CNC Chair shall request that the President of the EDA Board call an emergency meeting of the EDA Board, to be held no later than twenty-four (24) hours after the EDA Board member on the CNC has tabled his or her resignation. The Board shall appoint with another EDA Board member to the CNC.

- iv. In the event that more than two (2) EDA Board members on the CNC have become unable or unwilling to act within five (5) days of the first Nomination Meeting, the CNC shall continue with no additional Board members.
- v. In the event that one or more of the members at-large are named CNC Members become unable or unwilling to act, the Board may appoint a replacement only upon the request of the CNC Chair.
- d) The CNC shall select one of its members as the CNC Chair. The CNC Chair shall provide the names and contact coordinates of all CNC members to the Executive Director or their designate.
- e) A majority of members of the CNC shall constitute a quorum for the conduct of CNC business.
- f) In the event of a tie vote of CNC, the vote shall be considered defeated.
- g) The CNC shall administer a candidate nomination and selection process in accordance with these Rules, the EDA's Constitution, and the Canada Elections Act. If any of the timelines in the Rules conflict with notices and timelines in the EDA constitution, the Rules prevail. This provision constitutes a waiver by National Council pursuant to Article 12.4 of the EDA's Constitution.
- h) Each member and alternate of the CNC must sign Appendix "C" – Written Affirmation of Neutrality for Candidate Nomination Committee confirming that they will not to become a Nomination Contestant and will remain neutral in the candidate nomination process for that Electoral District. Any member of the CNC who does not remain neutral must resign or be removed from the CNC. The completed affirmation must be sent to the Party Headquarters. The CNC will not be recognised by the Party until all forms have been received.
- i) The NCSC, by a simple majority vote, may remove a member of the CNC following a review of a formal complaint from the Executive Director, the CNC, the EDA Board or any interested party.

5) OPENING NOTICE

- a) The Executive Director or their designate in consultation with the chair of the NCSC and the National Councillor(s) for the respective jurisdiction may open nominations at any time they see fit in any Electoral District by causing the Opening Notice to be sent to current members of the Electoral District.
- b) The Opening Notice shall include notice that nominations close in fourteen (14) days and shall be sent by any one (1) or combination of the following methods:
 - i. Regular mail sent to the member's address of record;
 - ii. E-mail sent to the member's e-mail address of record; or
 - iii. Live phone call to the member's phone number of record.

6) ELIGIBILITY

- a) A Nomination Contestant means an Applicant who:
- i. submitted a complete Application under the requirements of the Rules,
 - ii. was interviewed pursuant to Section 3, and
 - iii. was not disallowed as a result of complaint from the Executive Director, the CNC, the EDA Board or any interested party.
- b) If any of the following eligibility requirements are not met by an Applicant at all times during the nomination process, the Applicant will not be allowed to become a Nomination Contestant or their status as a Nomination Contestant will be disallowed:
- i. the Applicant must be eligible to be a candidate under the Canada Elections Act;
 - ii. unless waived by the Executive Director and the President of National Council and then approved by the majority of NCSC after consulting with the National Councillor(s) for the affected jurisdiction, the Applicant must not have been an unsuccessful candidate in both of the two prior federal general elections;
 - iii. unless waived by the Executive Director and the President of the National Council, and then approved by the majority of NCSC after consulting with the National Councillor(s) for the affected jurisdiction, the Applicant must not have been an unsuccessful nomination contestant in a Conservative Party nomination contest during the same Parliament as the one contested.
 - iv. unless waived by the Executive Director and the President of National Council and then approved by the majority of NCSC after consulting with the National Councillor(s) for the affected jurisdiction, the Applicant must have been a member of the Party for at least six (6) months prior to filing his or her application. A waiver will not be required if the applicant has held a membership in the party within the past six (6) months and has renewed their membership prior to submitting their application.
 - v. the Applicant is not subject to any investigations which may lead to professional sanctions or criminal charges, knowledge of which must be disclosed to the CNC and NCSC, and the Applicant has not obtained an approval to contest the nomination by NCSC.

If requirements are not met, the Applicant will not be allowed to become a Nomination Contestant.

7) APPLICATION

The proceeds of forfeited good conduct bonds will be transferred to the EDA. The good conduct bond will not constitute a contribution or transfer from the Applicant to the Party.
 - xii. Schedule L (Bulk Membership Rules).
- c) An Applicant may, prior to the Close of Nominations, provide amendments to their Application. The amendments may be submitted to the Party at the Party Headquarters, emailing a scanned copy to the designate of the Executive Director or their designate that is on the respective Electoral District CNC and delivery to the CNC Chair.

¹ Please refer to the Elections Canada Political Financing Handbook for Nomination Contestants and Financial Agents

- d) It is the responsibility of the Applicant to ensure that a complete Application is received prior to the Close of Nominations. If a complete Application is not received prior to the Close of Nominations, the Applicant will not be eligible to be a Nomination Contestant.

8) MEMBERSHIP LISTS

- a) If an Applicant is not disallowed, the Executive Director or their designate must provide a copy of the list of current members to the Applicant. A copy of the list of current members will not be provided prior to the Opening Notice.
- b) After the deadline for submission of memberships has passed, and as soon as the final list of members eligible to vote at the Nomination Meeting(s) (as defined below) is available, it shall be provided by the Executive Director or their designate to each Nomination Contestant.
- c) Upon receipt, Nomination Contestants may review the final list of members eligible to vote at the Nomination Meeting(s) to identify any members that were not on the list but the Nomination Contestant believes should be or any members that should not be included on the list. The Nomination Contestant shall advise the designate of the Executive Director within forty-eight (48) hours of receipt of final list of members eligible to vote at the Nomination Meeting(s) of any specific issues that may need to be resolved.
- d) If amendments are made to the final list of members eligible to vote at the Nomination Meeting(s), the Party will circulate an updated list in advance of the Nomination Meeting. Any members of the Party residing in the Electoral District but not on the list will be able to vote in the nomination process once their membership eligibility and residency has been confirmed by the Executive Director or their designate.

9) CANDIDATE NOMINATION MEETING

- a) If following the Close of Nominations there are no Nomination Contestants, any further action concerning the nomination process in the EDA will be subject to the direction of the Executive Director or their designate in consultation with the chair of NCSC, President of National Council, and the National Councillor(s) for the affected jurisdiction.
- b) If following the Close of Nominations there is only one accepted Nomination Contestant that person shall be acclaimed. If following the close of nominations, the CNC determines that there has been no acclamation; the remaining provisions of this Section shall be followed.
- c) The CNC must meet no more than three (3) days after the CNC has determined there has been no acclamation. At this meeting the CNC shall select the date, time and location of the Nomination Meeting(s). The Nomination Meeting(s) must occur no sooner than forty-two (42) days and no later than fifty-four (54) days from the Opening Notice.
- d) Only those who were members of the Party for at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the Nomination Meeting or, where there is more than one Nomination Meeting, prior to the first Nomination Meeting are eligible to vote. In addition, where the Opening Notice is given more than forty-two (42) days prior to the first Nomination Meeting, only those who were members of the Party not more than twenty-one (21) days after the Opening Notice is given are eligible to vote. Any member whose membership has expired within the previous ninety (90) days of the first Nomination Meeting shall be eligible to vote provided that the member pays the appropriate membership renewal fee “at the door” in the amount and in the manner required by the Party, as in accordance with Section 4.2.7 of the Party Constitution.

- e) Each Nomination Contestant must be given the opportunity to address the membership at least once prior to the vote. Each Nomination Contestant shall be given equal time to speak, and the time may be used by the Nomination Contestant and/or introducer(s) as the Nomination Contestant may choose.
- f) The CNC shall appoint an impartial RO who shall be approved by the Executive Director or their designate. The name and contact information of the proposed RO shall be provided to the Executive Director or their designate via the CNC Chair. The RO shall supervise the voting and vote count, declare the nomination of the Party candidate. The RO shall keep in their possession related election materials used for the Nomination Meeting including membership lists and the cast ballots which will then be destroyed seven (7) days following the conclusion of the appeal periods as identified in Section 12 unless otherwise directed by the Executive Director or their designate.
- g) No official business other than the selection of a Candidate shall be conducted at the Nomination Meeting until after the vote for the candidate has been held.
- h) On the ballot, the Nomination Contestants shall be listed in alphabetical order by surname followed by first name if more than one (1) Nomination Contestant has the same surname and by first and second name if more than one (1) Nomination Contestant have similar surnames and first names.
- i) The EDA Board, after consultation with the CNC and no more than seven (7) days after the CNC has determined there has been no acclamation, shall pass a resolution setting out whether the Candidate will be selected by either:
 - (i) a sequential ballot, where, if after the first vote no Nomination Contestant receives more than fifty (50) percent of the valid votes cast, then the Nomination Contestant(s) receiving the least number of votes or failing to achieve a minimum of ten (10) percentage of vote shall be dropped and another vote taken. This process shall be repeated until one (1) Nomination Contestant receives more than fifty (50) percent of valid votes cast. A Nomination Contestant receiving more than (50) percent of valid votes cast shall be the Candidate; or
 - (ii) a single preferential transferable ballot wherein the voters numerically rank the Nomination Contestants in sequence of their choice, where, if after the first vote no Nomination Contestant receives more than fifty (50) percent of the valid votes cast, then the Nomination Contestant(s) receiving the least number of votes or failing to achieve a minimum of ten (10) percentage of vote shall be dropped and the ballots recalculated based on next choices for the dropped candidates. This process shall be repeated until one (1) Nomination Contestant receives more than fifty (50) percent of valid votes cast. A Nomination Contestant receiving more than (50) percent of valid votes cast shall be the Candidate.

- j) In Electoral Districts where factors such as geography, weather and transportation hinder members from attending at a single location, the Executive Director or their designate in consultation with the chair of NCSC, the President of National Council and the National Councillor(s) for the affected jurisdiction may direct, or, upon request from the EDA Board may authorize, that the selection of the Candidate take place at Nomination Meetings held at two (2) or more times and locations. The Executive Director or their designate in consultation with the chair of NCSC, the President of National Council and the National Councillor(s) for the affected jurisdiction will determine the method of balloting to be used in these circumstances.
- k) In the event the Executive Director or their designate in consultation with the chair of NCSC, the President of National Council and the National Councillor(s) for the affected jurisdiction has determined to allow multiple Nomination Meetings to occur at multiple times and/or locations, then all the deadlines, timelines and notice periods shall be based on the date of the first nomination meeting.
- l) Under extenuating circumstances other methods of balloting may be approved by the Executive Director or their designate in consultation with the chair of NCSC, the President of National Council and the National Councillor(s) for the affected jurisdiction.
- m) Ballots shall be marked in secret.
- n) Proxy voting is not permitted.
- o) The Executive Director or their designate in consultation with the chair of NCSC, the President of National Council and the National Councillor(s) for the affected jurisdiction will review if there are any significant religious holidays that may cause a change in the scheduling of a Nomination Meeting.
- p) Media may be allowed to attend the Nomination Meeting(s) at the discretion of the Executive Director or their designate in consultation with the chair of NCSC, the President of National Council and the National Councillor(s) for the affected jurisdiction.

10) NOMINATION MEETING NOTICE

- a) A Nomination Meeting Notice shall be given no more than four (4) days after the CNC has determined that no Nomination Contestant has been acclaimed.
- b) The Nomination Meeting Notice shall include the date, time and location of the Nomination Meeting(s) and shall be sent by any one (1) or combination of the following methods:
 - i. Regular mail sent to the member's address of record;
 - ii. E-mail sent to the member's e-mail address of record; or
 - iii. Live phone call to the member's phone number of record.

11) ABRIDGEMENT OF THE RULES

- a) National Council authorizes that the Executive Director or their designate in consultation with the chair of NCSC, the President of National Council and the National Councillor(s) for the affected jurisdiction, may alter, abridge or suspend Sections 3, 5, 7 and 10 of the Rules as they see fit. Any such decision of the Executive Director or their designate in consultation with the chair of NCSC, the President of National Council and the National Councillor(s) for the affected jurisdiction shall be final and binding and is not subject to appeal or review on any grounds whatsoever.
- b) National Council may alter, abridge or suspend any of the Rules as it sees fit.

12) APPEAL PROCESS AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- a) National Council hereby appoints, pursuant to Article 19.2 of the Constitution, the members of the Secretariat Committee to attempt to intervene to resolve any dispute referred to National Council pursuant to Article 19.1 as to whether the requirements of the Constitution, a by-law or any rules are being met by the EDA Board or any committee thereof in relation to the nomination process. However, for any dispute connected to the involvement of the CNC or NCSC in the disallowance of a nomination contestant, the sole remedy shall be the appeal process provided in Sections 12(c) and (d).
- b) Where the Secretariat Committee decides not to intervene or is unsuccessful in resolving a dispute described in Section 12(a) and the dispute remains outstanding, the Secretary shall forthwith report same to the Chair of the Arbitration Committee at which time the matter shall be deemed to stand referred to the Arbitration Committee pursuant to Article 19.3 of the Constitution for adjudication by a panel.
- c) Where the NCSC disallows the candidacy of any person before or after nomination by the EDA, that person may appeal to National Council by filing an appeal in writing with the Executive Director of the Party within twenty-four (24) hours of the disallowance having been successfully communicated to the person. The Executive Director shall bring any appeal to the attention of the President and Secretary of National Council forthwith.
- d) National Council shall determine expeditious procedures to be followed in an appeal, recognizing that disallowance is an act of discretion of the NCSC. The decision of National Council on an appeal shall be final and binding and is not subject to appeal or review on any ground whatsoever.
- e) If a Nomination Candidate wishes to appeal the conduct or the results of the Nomination Meeting, they must do so in writing within five (5) days of the Nomination Meeting to the Chair of the NCSC through the Executive Director. In the event of a Nomination process taking place over a number of days, they must file their appeal within five (5) days of the final meeting. The written appeal must clearly identify the issues being raised as well as provide any support of those issues for which they feel an appeal should be heard. If the Nomination Candidate is not satisfied with the decision of the NCSC on their complaints, they may appeal to the National Council whose decision shall be final and binding and is not subject to appeal or review on any grounds whatsoever.

13) BULK MEMBERSHIP PROCESSING PROCEDURES

- a) Attached as Schedule L to these Rules are certain procedures governing the processing of membership applications received in bulk on behalf of EDAs, Applicants, and Nomination Contestants. By submitting an Application, each Applicant is deemed to be bound by these procedures; specifically the Applicant agrees that memberships processed by their campaign using the bulk membership procedures will be paid for with funds from the individuals seeking membership with their consent and not by the Applicant or Nomination Contestant or their campaign.
